Best Cultural Event

Hollywood St. Patrick's Day Parade & Festival

www.StPatricksParade.com

954-921-3404

There is one day each year when everyone is Irish, and downtown Hollywood is transformed into a sea of green. A huge crowd filled the downtown area as floats rolled by, and bands began to play. This year's highlight was the famous New York City Police Department's Emerald Society Pipe and Drum Corps. The group has become a fixture at the festivities.

Floats began to roll down Hollywood Boulevard at 1:00 pm with live music and dancing all afternoon and late into the night. Area businesses opened their doors to local families and tourists from as far as Ireland. The family-friendly nature of the Hollywood festival makes it incredibly inviting. We can't wait for March 13th, 2023!

Best Church First Presbyterian Church 1530 Hollywood Boulevard

At First Presbyterian Church of Hollywood, God has given us a clear vision to invite and welcome everyone into God's amazing love. We welcome everyone – from those who follow Jesus to those who are spiritually curious. Wherever you are from, whatever color or ethnicity, whether you live in a home or have no home, and no matter who you choose to love, at First Church, we believe God invites and welcomes everyone into God's amazing love. We would also love you to experience that inviting and welcoming love here."

Best Family Event

Candy Cane Parade

954-921-3404

The Hollywood Boardwalk got a taste of the North Pole on December 7th. Dozens of floats, fire trucks, marching bands and more drove by as thousands of little ones looked on hoping to catch some candy!

The evening parade along the beach is really one-of-a-kind. Marchers threw tons of candy and treats to onlooking little ones while they smiled and waved. The event organizers saved the biggest and best for last, of course, as Santa even made an appearance. It's not too long till its that time of year again!

Best Free Event

Downtown Hollywood Artwalk

Harrison Street, Downtown Hollywood www.floridashollywood.org/artwalk 954-924-2980

In the evening, on the third Saturday of every month, downtown Hollywood is transformed into an art lover's paradise. Our readers love the laid-back, unassuming vibe as they peruse galleries and shops. There is certainly no pressure to purchase anything, but there are tons of great finds every time!

The highlight of the event is always the Artisan Market on Harrison Street between 20th and 21st Ave. Pop-up shops, live music, and artist showcases are on display. There are frequently guided tours of Hollywood's famous murals and galleries. The Art Walk is great to visit anytime, but we love it in the winter on a cool evening. Be sure to check out the live music stage when you go!

Best Park

Topeekeegee Yungee Park 3300 N. Park Road / 954-357-8811

www.broward.org/parks

Ask anyone who lives in or around Hollywood what the best municipal park to stay with the family is, and you're likely to hear T.Y. Park. It is named after a Seminole term meaning "gathering place" and we can see why. It is home to a 60+ site campground, two water playgrounds, beautiful hiking trails and countless picnic spots. There is even a spectacular pond equipped with swan boats!

T.Y. Park hosts a number of special events throughout the year. One of our favorites is the Camelot Days Medieval Festival in November. Families are invited to explore a long-lost kingdom full of artisans, knights, musicians and maybe even some royals!

Best Non-Profit Organization

The Hollywood LGBTQ+ Council www.LGBTQcouncil.com

954-665-7002

Members of the community got together to create a new organization to help better connect LGBTQ+people along with greater Hollywood as a whole. The council is based around a 5-pillar platform: (i) Life - Ensuring that Hollywood is a dynamic place for LGBTQ+ people to live, work & play. (ii) Government - Partnering with elected leaders to advance issues and initiatives important to the community; (iii) Business - Promoting & inclusive business community that values all people; (iv) Transformation - Ensuring the LGBTQ+ Community has a "seat at the table" as Hollywood grows in the coming years; (v) Quality of Life - Enhance the quality of life for everyone in the Hollywood community, not just LGBTQ+ people.

IOLLY WOOD UPDATE By Mayor Josh Levy

Gity Hollywood. This edition of Our City is particularly exciting. Throughout the publication are write-ups about all the small and large businesses that readers chose as the "Best of Hollywood," and it's always fun to recognize businesses that we love. Restaurants, hair salons, retail stores, doctor's offices, and all other types of businesses are a big part of what builds our community. We visit businesses to enjoy time with our friends and family, to manage our health and our finances, and for most of us, where we work to earn our own living.

More than 7,500 businesses are registered in Hollywood and many of these businesses are located in Hollywood because of our city's prime location in the heart of South Florida between Fort Lauderdale and Miami. This includes our city's largest employers: Memorial Healthcare System – One of the largest public healthcare systems in the nation, Diplomat Beach Resort - Ranked among the top 20 most popular meeting resorts, Brandsmart USA - A leading consumer electronics and appliance retailer in the southeastern United States, Chewy.com - A popular pet supply retailer whose passion is for all things pets, and HEICO Corporation - A top manufacturer of aerospace, defense, industrial and electronics components.

Hollywood is home to innovative and future-focused companies like Quantum Marine and Sintavia, both located in our Port 95 Industrial Park, which stretches to our city's northern limits from Griffin Road to State Road 84 west of the airport. Quantum Marine is the leading manufacturer of hi-tech stabilizers that keep yachts, military and commercial vessels steady in the open seas. Sintavia has the world's largest independent metal aggregate advanced manufacturing plant right here in Hollywood, where parts for the aviation and aerospace industry are built through 3-D printing, the incredible technology that Sintavia's CEO, Brian Neff, says is ushering in the 4th industrial revolution. Emerging tech firms also find a welcoming climate for business growth, including ClassWallet, a digital wallet solution headquartered in Hollywood that is simplifying purchasing and financial management for schools across the country by eliminating paperwork and manual purchasing processes.

All these innovative and growing companies are important to our city, and equally important are our small businesses. From one-person companies to family businesses, and all others that provide valuable services on a daily basis. A big thank you is due to everyone who supports local small business, and I know that includes all of us. Congratulations to all the businesses that were selected as Best of Hollywood. Hollywood is proud to be a city that is always innovating to service your business needs. From our timely building permit processing to business start-up and development services, our city government is improving in every respect to service your needs.

THE DONOWAY CENTER

Pancreatic NanoKnife Tumor Ablation for Advanced and Oligo-Metastatic Pancreatic Cancer

If you are being treated for advanced or oligometastatic pancreatic cancer you may want to contact Dr. Robert Donoway at ATLAS ONCOLOGY in Hollywood, Florida.

Dr Donoway is using multi-modality therapy combining Pancreatic NanoKnife Tumor Ablation with chemo-immunoradio therapy to treat advanced stage cancer patients from around the world after they have stopped responding to standard of care therapy and have been left with few options for further treatment.

With over 32 years of experience performing pancreatic surgery in south Florida, Dr Donoway recognized that because of late diagnosis, up to 85% of patients treated for pancreatic cancer already had metastatic disease at the time of diagnosis. This fact limited the benefit many patients might receive from pancreatic surgery, which is problematic as surgery has been long held to be the only reproduceable therapy for cure; whereas in reality surgery is currently more likely Palliative in almost 80% of the cases.

Recent evidence shows that when even advanced disease is treated aggressively in an integrated approach, incorporating NanoKnife surgery with chemotherapy and now supplemented with immunotherapy, long-term survivorship can be achieved, especially when compared to chemotherapy alone.

Dr Donoway has been a pioneer in the use of pancreatic NanoKnife, especially for complex cases. During the past decade, patients from around the world have traveled to benefit from this groundbreaking treatment by Dr Donoway, which is FDA approved. Dr Donoway also treats other advanced cancers, such as liver, Breast, and sarcomas, using NanoKnife Surgery based on its FDA approved guidelines. Patients experience a brief recovery, which means the patient can start chemotherapy and radiation that much sooner.

Dr Donoway feels that "we are long overdue to revise our approach to treating Pancreatic Ca. The treatment history been largely unchanged for over 80 years and has just broken the 10% five year survivorship barrier. Only thru thinking outside the box will we accomplish the positive. Otherwise, all we're doing is confirming Einstein's definition of insanity."

Dr Donoway is involved in ongoing research in identifying the best chemo-immuno therapy and sequencing to be used along with Pancreatic nanoKnife/IRE. Dr Donoway states, "the results so far have been very encouraging and we have begun using it for other select cancers. Among his longest survivors are now patients over nine years without evidence of cancer recurrence. In the past, without IRE they would have lived a little over a year, and so this technique opens a whole new avenue for treating those eligible patients in a more targeted fashion."

Dr Donoway has presented his results of pancreatic ablation at the recent annual meeting of the American Pancreatic Association. For more information about Dr Donoway and the pancreatic IRE/NanoKnife program call 954-986-6366 or visit www.atlasoncology.com

Best Pizza

DiSalvo's Pizza & Italian Restaurant 4190 N 46th Avenue www.disalvospizza.com 954-962-1115

DiSalvo's is a throwback pizza restaurant from a simpler time. They make their pies with all-fresh ingredients daily, resulting in consistent, tasty pizza. If you are hungry, be sure to try "The Special!" It is a traditional pizza covered with pepperoni, sausage, hamburger, green peppers, onions, mushrooms, and extra cheese. It is sure to satisfy any palette. Not in the mood for something that intense? Try their Margherita Pizza, which has just enough mozzarella and fresh basil to hit the spot.

Best Seafood

Billy's Stone Crab 400 N Ocean Drive www.crabs.com 954-923-2300

Billy's Stone Crab Restaurant is known far and wide nationally and internationally as one of THE best seafood restaurants & markets in the country. And for a good reason. Billy's two-story fine dining restaurant is accessible both by elevator and stairs and has floor-to-ceiling captivating views of the Intracoastal Water Way in the main elegant dining room.

The sunset is magnificent. And at night, when the draw bridge of Hollywood Boulevard is illuminated, and the lights come on, the romantic scene is truly breathtaking. The seafood creations offered daily, are what keep people coming back time and time again.

Best Wings

Rickey's Restaurant & Sports Bar

4799 Hollywood Boulevard 954-966-1429

Making chicken wings just right takes an artist's touch. Overcooked wings are dry, too little sauce makes them boring, too much sauce is a mess, and under-cooked wings might kill you. The folks at Rickey's have got it figured out! The reasonably-priced bar and restaurant's claim to fame is its uniquely battered crispy wings. They come with a variety of sauce options, including mild, medium, hot, habanero, teriyaki, BBQ, and honey.

Go for the wings, but stay for the beer. The modern bar is family-friendly, with an old-school jukebox and a laid-back environment. We can't wait to get our next order, extra hot with celery!

THE NEED FOR MEDICAID PLANNING By Yoni Markhoff

ne of the greatest fears of older Americans is that they may end up in a nursing home. This not only means a great loss of personal autonomy, but also a tremendous financial strain. Careful planning can help ease the financial burden.

The average cost of a nursing home in South Florida is $11,000 monthly. Most people end up paying for nursing home care out of their savings until they run out. Then they apply for Medicaid to pick up the cost. There is another way to preserve your assets and qualify for Medicaid.

Careful planning, whether in advance or in response to an unanticipated need for care, can help protect your estate, whether for your spouse or for your children or grandchildren. This can be done by making sure you receive the benefits to which you are entitled under the Medicare and Medicaid programs. Veterans may also seek benefits from the Veterans Administration.

Those who are not in immediate need of long-term care may have the luxury of distributing or protecting their assets in advance. This way, when they do need long-term care, they will quickly qualify for Medicaid benefits. Every case is different. Some have more savings or income than others. Some are married, and others are single. Some have family support, while others do not. Some own their own homes, and some rent. Still, there are a number of basic strategies and tools that are typically used in Medicaid planning. Call us for a free consultation.

Yoni Markhoff serves on various committees and organizations, including President of The Broward Coalition on Aging, founding member of The Miami Dade Coalition on Aging, Chairperson of the Advisory Council for The Miami Alliance for the Aging, Secretary of Florida Association of Directors of Nursing, and Chairperson of The Miami Dade School Board Committee on Small Business Procurement. Yoni enjoys mountain bike riding, horseback riding, and spending quality time with his two kids.
